FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah
Is 22:19-23

I place the key of the House of David upon his shoulder.

Thus says the Lord of hosts to Shebna, the master of the palace:

I dismiss you from your office,
I remove you from your post,
and the same day I call on my servant
Eliakim son of Hilkiah.
I invest him with your robe,
gird him with your sash,
entrust him with your authority;
and he shall be a father
to the inhabitants of Jerusalem
and to the House of Judah.
I place the key of the House of David
on his shoulder;
should he open, no one shall close,
should he close, no one shall open.
I drive him like a peg
into a firm place;
he will become a throne of glory
for his father's house.

The Word of the Lord.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans
Rom 11:33-36

From him, through him, and in him are all things.

How rich are the depths of God – how deep his wisdom and knowledge – and how impossible to penetrate his motives or understand his methods! Who could ever know the mind of the Lord? Who could ever be his counsellor? Who could ever give him anything or lend him anything? All that exists comes from him; all is by him and for him. To him be glory for ever! Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

You are Peter, the rock on which I will build my Church;
the gates of hell will not hold out against it.

Alleluia

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 137:1-3. 6. 8. R. v.8

(R.) Lord, your love is eternal;
do not forsake the work of your hands.

1. I thank you, Lord, with all my heart,
you have heard the words of my mouth.
Before the angels I will bless you.
I will adore before your holy temple. (R.)
2. I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excel all we ever knew of you.
On the day I called, you answered;
you increased the strength of my soul. (R.)
3. The Lord is high yet he looks on the lowly and the haughty he knows from afar.
Your love, O Lord, is eternal,
discard not the work of your hands. (R.)

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Mt 16:13-20

You are Peter, to you I will give the keys of the kingdom of heaven.

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said, 'the Son of the living God.' Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church

GOSPEL (continued)

And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.' Then he gave the disciples strict orders not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.

The Gospel of the Lord.

2020 SOCIAL JUSTICE STATEMENT – MENTAL HEALTH IN AUSTRALIA TODAY

We celebrate Social Justice Sunday on 30 August. The Australian Bishops' Social Justice Statement is titled: To Live Life to the Full: Mental health in Australia today.

Over the past year Australia has faced unprecedented upheavals, prolonged drought and bushfires that wiped out entire communities.

Lives lost, communities destroyed. We now face the COVID-19 pandemic. In our vulnerability we realise that we are not in control.

Our daily routines have been disrupted, our workplaces and churches have been closed and we have been forced to isolate ourselves from others. Understanding mental health will help us to be aware of those who need our support. The Bishops invite us to call for policies and service provision that meets the needs of the poorest and most marginalised members of our community. Download the Statement at

Anxiety and fear of the unknown are normal responses and most of us will experience a mental health problem at some point during our lives. We are invited to make mental health a priority. People experiencing mental ill-health are not some 'other' people, they are 'us'. People in our families, faith communities, workplaces and society are suffering mental ill-health and everyone needs understanding and support.

There are gaps in the mental health system that need to be addressed. During this time of pandemic, we have often heard it said that "we are all in this together". The quality of our care for the people who are the most vulnerable or disadvantaged will be the test of whether or not this is true.

Here in our community we might ask ourselves who this could describe. Ask yourself; is there someone that I know of that I could check in with, or highlight to the Parish team that a pastoral call might be required? A young family, an elderly couple or a widow or widower in our community that might be feeling even lonelier at this time?

A commitment to the common good means attending to the good of all of us, without exception, and paying special attention to those who are most often overlooked, sidelined or excluded. It is surely time for us to make mental health a real priority, so that all people may know the fullness of life which Jesus offers (John 10:10).
