ST PATRICK'S PARISH
MORTLAKE

Celebrating 125 Years 1895-2020

2020 marks 125 years since the beginning of St Patrick's Parish Mortlake. Since our earliest days, we have been blessed and enriched by priests, religious sisters and families who have made their home in Mortlake, and have made St Patrick's their parish. The faith, energy and commitment of the early Irish settlers has flourished, and successive generations of people from many different cultures and nationalities have contributed to the wonderfully diverse and vibrant parish community we share today.

Just as 2020 is a year we will never forget, 1895 is a focal point in the life of St Patrick's Parish. It is when we began, and the passing of time weaves the threads of our story across the years – the highs and lows, opportunities and challenges, joys and sorrows. These significant personal, spiritual and communal events in our history have been captured beautifully in Damian Gleeson's new book:

An Enduring Flame

St Patrick's Mortlake 1885-2020
An Irish-Australian working class community

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah
Is 45:1.4-6

I have taken the hand of Cyrus to subdue nations before his countenance.

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus,
whom he has taken by his right hand
to subdue nations before him
and strip the loins of kings,
to force gateways before him
that their gates be closed no more:

It is for the sake of my servant Jacob,
of Israel my chosen one,
that I have called you by your name,
conferring a title though you do not know me.
I am the Lord, unrivalled;
there is no other God besides me.
Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun
that, apart from me, all is nothing.

The Word of the Lord

4. Worship the Lord in his temple.
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
He will judge the peoples in fairness. (R.)

(R.) Give the Lord glory and honour.

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians
1 Thes 1:1-5

We are mindful of your faith, hope, and love.

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith
in action, worked for love and persevered
through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.

We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 95:1. 3-5. 7-10. R. v.7

(R.) Give the Lord glory and honour.

1. O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory
and his wonders among all the peoples.
2. The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
to be feared above all gods;
the gods of the heathens are naught.
It was the Lord who made the heavens.
3. Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
give the Lord glory and power,
give the Lord the glory of his name.
Bring an offering and enter his courts.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Shine on the world like bright stars;
you are offering it the word of life.

Alleluia

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Mt 22:15-21

Give to Caesar the things that belong to Caesar and to God the things that are God's.

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you.

Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God.'

This week the Gospel is all about being 1st, or the best!! We all like to come first, be the best at things and to feel important. But Jesus always makes us think differently.

Let us see what Jesus has to say!!!

Gospel of Matthew read by Fr Tom:

<https://youtu.be/21Pe9exttDc>

God does not cause problems for us. God is the reason that we are happy. If we put God first, everything else will be ok. Maybe this week you could think about ways that you can put God first in your life.

Pope's Encyclical on Fraternity & Social Friendship

Pope Francis' new encyclical Fratelli Tutti: On Fraternity and Social Friendship, issues a strong challenge to xenophobia and an exaggerated focus on national self-interest. It encourages social and economic inclusion at all levels and stresses that all human beings are sisters and brothers, members of one human family. This is a timely message for us all.

Vatican News reported that "The Encyclical Letter Fratelli tutti is about love and attention – the kind of attention that brings a broken and bleeding world back to health. It is a social meditation on the Good Samaritan, who recognises love and attention as the preeminent law, and models for us creative social friendship." "Pope Francis asks us to gaze at the world similarly, such that we come to see the basic, indispensable relation of all things and people, near and far. In its simplicity of call, Fratelli tutti is a devastating challenge to our ecological, political, economic, and social life. But above all it is a proclamation of an ineradicable, joyful truth, presented here as a well-spring for a fatigued world."

A WORTHY READ – COLUMBAN BULLETIN

Looking for some extra spiritual reading?

I often find the Columban bulletin an interesting read. The Columbans are a missionary society of priests who work in cooperation with lay people and Columban Sisters in 16 countries from a standpoint of solidarity with the poor and integrity of creation. Formally founded in 1918, St Columbans Mission Society takes its name from St Columban, Ireland's C6th missionary.

PRAYER FOR CAREGIVERS

Loving Father, help me as I care for others to have your heart, the heart of a loving Father who cares deeply for these beautiful people.

Please bless the work of my hands as I tend to physical needs, inspire my words as I offer comfort and support, and strengthen my heart to always seek to love.

I lay before you the weariness I can feel, the challenges I face and the suffering I share in.

Abba Father be my carer as I seek to give out your blessings to those in need.

Amen.

A 'SNEAK PEAK' inside the PARISH HISTORY BOOK – 'AN ENDURING FLAME'

In the first of a series of articles in the lead-up to next month's exciting release of the parish's official history, our historian, Damian Gleeson provides a brief overview of the earliest events in St Patrick's history between 1885 and 1895.

2020 is the 125th anniversary of St Patrick's Church, which when constructed in 1895 was originally less than half the current size. It was also the only Catholic Church built in Sydney during the 1890s economic depression that was debt free thanks to a bequest from Dean Callaghan McCarthy of the Burwood (now Concord) Parish and the generosity of so many early Irish working-class members, especially the Callaghan, McNeeve, McCarthy, Moloney, and Toohey families.

Given 1895 is such a key date in our parish's history, why does the sub-title of our parish history, An Enduring Flame, refer to 1885? The inclusion of 1885 is intentional as a means of giving due recognition to the earliest development of a Catholic community at Mortlake. From 1885 poor Irish immigrants and their families began to settle at Mortlake, often in small shanty cottages in what was then called New Burwood Road (now Gale Street), or in Lake Street (which would be taken over by the Australian Gas Light Company), or in Edwin and Mortlake Streets, for example.

Given the scarcity of housing at Mortlake, quite a few Irish labourers lived at Burwood, including at several public houses, and thus their 'abode' is listed as Burwood when their children were baptised at St Mary's Concord. The first identifiable Mortlake family in terms of a baptism were the McFadden's, on 28 December 1886 Julia Catherine, the eldest child of James McFadden and Julia King was born at Mortlake.

'AN ENDURING FLAME' (continued)

Dean McCarthy baptised Julia at Concord on 16 January 1887. From the mid-1880s Dean McCarthy had identified the needs of this emerging Catholic population of Mortlake and the accompanying small villages of Riverview and Beaconsfield. He appreciated the transport distance and difficulties for those people living at the northern and eastern ends of the peninsular who wished to attend Mass at Concord.

1889 was a critical year in the lead-up to a Catholic Church at Mortlake. Through the dean's instigation, the Archdiocese of Sydney purchased land at Mortlake on 17 July 1889. The same year marked the first Mortlake district marriage: James Rourke, a native of County Kildare, Ireland, aged 27 and a labourer at the Gas Works, married Annie Giles, 18, a domestic servant on 21 September.

The Parish of St. Pat's Mortlake would like to thank the City of Canada Bay Council and Trevor Lee & Son funeral directors for supporting our 125 years Parish Celebrations.
