FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Job
Jb 7:1-4. 6-7

I am filled with sorrow all day long

Job began to speak:

Is not man's life on earth nothing more than pressed service,
his time no better than hired drudgery?
Like the slave, sighing for the shade,
or the workman with no thought but his wages,
months of delusion I have assigned to me,
nothing for my own but nights of grief.
Lying in bed I wonder, 'When will it be day?'
Risen I think, 'How slowly evening comes!'
Restlessly I fret till twilight falls.
Swifter than a weaver's shuttle my days have passed,
and vanished, leaving no hope behind.
Remember that my life is but a breath,
and that my eyes will never again see joy.

The Word of the Lord

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
1 Cor 9:16-19. 22-23

Punishment will come to me if I do not preach the Gospel.

I do not boast of preaching the gospel, since it is a duty which has been laid on me; I should be punished if I did not preach it! If I had chosen this work myself, I might have been paid for it, but as I have not, it is a responsibility which has been put into my hands. Do you know what my reward is? It is this: in my preaching, to be able to offer the Good News free, and not insist on the rights which the gospel gives me.

So though I am not a slave of any man I have made myself the slave of everyone so as to win as many as I could. For the weak I made myself weak. I made myself all things to all men in order to save some at any cost; and I still do this, for the sake of the gospel, to have a share in its blessings.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 146:1-6. R. v.3

(R.) Praise the Lord who heals the broken-hearted.

1. Praise the Lord for he is good;
sing to our God for he is loving:
to him our praise is due. (R.)
2. The Lord builds up Jerusalem and brings back Israel's exiles,
he heals the broken-hearted,
he binds up all their wounds.
He fixes the number of the stars;
he calls each one by its name. (R.)
3. Our Lord is great and almighty;
his wisdom can never be measured.
The Lord raises the lowly;
he humbles the wicked to the dust. (R.)

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

and endured our suffering

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Mk 1:29-39

He cured many who suffered from diseases of one kind or another.

On leaving the synagogue, Jesus went with James and John straight to the house of Simon and Andrew. Now Simon's mother-in-law had gone to bed with fever, and they told him about her straightaway. He went to her, took her by the hand and helped her up. And the fever left her and she began to wait on them.

That evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were sick and those who were possessed by devils. The whole town came crowding round the door, and he cured many who were suffering from diseases of one kind or another; he also cast out many devils, but he would not allow them to speak, because they knew who he was.

In the morning, long before dawn, he got up and left the house, and went off to a lonely place and prayed there. Simon and his companions set out in search of him, and when they found him they said, 'Everybody is looking for you.' He answered, 'Let us go elsewhere, to the neighbouring country towns, so that I can preach there too, because that is why I came.' And he went all through Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out devils.

GREENSPACE WORKS

Work continues, contractor Landscape by Design, now have all materials on site, Council approval to hand and an enthusiastic and interested skilled team. The electrical services are in place (local parishioner David Smith) and the focal paved area is being laid. Rain has had some impact but all going well the work will be completed in the next month.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

Today is the 5th Sunday of Ordinary Time. In three weeks we will begin our Lenten journey and Fr Tom's vestments will change from Green to the preparing colour of Purple. The journey we are on at the moment with Jesus teaches us how to use our voices to share his love with others. The miracles of Jesus at the start of his teaching time show us that he used his hands to help others.

By touching people that no one else would touch, he healed all kinds of sickness of the body and of the mind. Jesus not only wishes us to talk about the Good News that he was sharing but he also wants us to put our words and love into action. To do Gods work we need to use our hands. Have a think about what sort of work we might need to do?

Let's listen to Fr Tom as he reads this Sunday's gospel from Mark

<https://youtu.be/cZ8PzZ2ewj8>

We follow Jesus' example in the care we show to the people around us.

Activities you might like to do as a family:

- Make a list! As a family, make a list of ways that we use your hands in Mass to worship together.
- Help others! Do you know someone who is elderly or sick and could use a hand with light housework or some shopping or gardening? (I'm sure Fr Tom knows someone!)
