THANK YOU AND REST IN PEACE MIKE BAILEY

It is with great sadness that we will this week farewell from St Mary's Cathedral Mike Bailey, in a Requiem Mass of Christian Burial. Mike passed away on Sunday, 20 June. Mike and Helena have been stalwarts of St Pat's parish over the years, always being generous with their time and professional skills at various parish events and activities. Mike will also be greatly missed by many in our society, as he was actively involved in many community groups. We pray and walk with Helena and their son Michael at this time.

Thanks for being a true example of Christian charity Mike, you will be sorely missed. May Mike now truly Rest In Peace and Rise in Glory

FIRST READING

Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24

A reading from the book of Wisdom

It was the devil's envy that brought death into the world.

Death was not God's doing,
he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living.
To be – for this he created all;
the world's created things have health in them,
in them no fatal poison can be found,
and Hades holds no power on earth;
for virtue is undying.
Yet God did make man imperishable,
he made him in the image of his own nature;
it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world,
as those who are his partners will discover.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – continued

3. The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning into dancing,
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. (R.)

SECOND READING

2 Cor 8:7. 9. 13-15

A reading from the second letter of
St Paul to the Corinthians

Your abundance should supply their want.

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 29:2. 4-6. 11-13. R. v.2

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

1. I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. (R.)
2. Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment: his favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. (R.)

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Mk 5:21-24. 35-43

Young girl, I say to you, arise.

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

Some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

WELCOME GRANT STINSON TO OUR PARISH COMMUNITY

This weekend at the 9am Sunday Mass we welcome Grant Stinson who will be received into the Church. Grant has walked with members of the Sacramental team, Bob Mayor and Denise Norman, in learning about our Catholic Faith. Welcome Grant and may God's peace be with you and your family of Suzanne, Madeline and Owen. Know that you are always welcome here in the St Pat's community.

CHILDREN LITURGY

Jesus shares himself physically when we receive the Eucharist, this action brings us life, just as we will hear in the Gospel today. Jesus uses his hands to give life and love. Our hands are wonderful tools – they can help, wave, direct, lift, carry, hold, pray – so many uses. Let us listen as Fr Tom reads the Gospel for us.

<https://youtu.be/N3Rva27UVyl>

Just like Jairus that our parents will do anything to keep us safe. Jesus only allows three of his special friends, Peter, James and John to join him and the little girl's family, because he is teaching his friends to have faith and belief in God, so they will act with the same faith. Jesus also wants us to be generous with our time and our gifts. He wants us to give our time and energy to help others.

There are many ways for us to use our hands and gift to share God's love with others. By saying thank you, I am sorry or can I help you we can show that we are caring followers of Jesus. Jesus shared his love and caring even with people who did not say thank you.

Activities you might like to do as a family:

- How about putting your hands to good use, you and your family could come and do some gardening at the Parish.
- Maybe you could use your hands to collect for the poor.

THANK YOU – MARYANN LONGHURST

Thank you to our parish bookkeeper and parishioner Maryann Longhurst who is finishing up with us in her bookkeeping role this week. Maryann has been vital in keeping the parish financial wheels turning in this Covid-era, and I thank her for her service to St Pat's.

We also welcome our new bookkeeper, Ruth Rawlinson, who will take over the important bookkeeping role in the parish and will be employed on Wednesdays in the parish office. Welcome Ruth.
